

I am opposing the FCC petition to weaken the Indiana No-Call regulations. This petition will cause extreme amounts of unsolicited telephone calls to people who can ill afford the items that these business are trying to market to us. Those who can afford these products will already be contacting these businesses to inquire about their products. Even though these well-meaning businesses are only trying to increase their profits, they could be doing so at the great expense of those who can ill afford them.